Description

Located in a small hamlet 2 kms from the village of Plesidy, 8 kms from Bourbriac, and 20 mins from the medieval town of Guingamp and the main N12 motorway.

This traditional Breton cosy detached 200 + year old stone cottage is set in a pretty and peaceful setting with its own private garden & patio area. The Cottage has been completely renovated retaining original features and offers idyllic self catering accommodation in Northern Brittany.

The cottage is set in a hamlet of just 7 dwellings and a dairy farm.

Downstairs is an open plan lounge-kitchen area with a large granite fire place and wood burner. It has two sofas, TV/Video combi, dining table & four chairs. The stairs are open plan and quite steep (as often found in French houses). A childs stair gate is at the foot of the stairs for children's safety. The bathroom is fitted with a shower, wash basin & toilet. At the top of the stairs is a double bedroom which leads through to the second bedroom with 3 twin beds.
